

SUSAN WASHBURN
Executive Director

Susan has been Executive Director of Granted since early 2015, and has 34 years total nonprofit experience. She is an Evansville native with two grown children and 3 grandchildren. Her biggest goals are to give joy and hope to those she serves, when there usually isn't much to be found, and to build an organization to carry on serving our area's children for generations to come.